

SEN. ELKINS REVOLTS AGAINST DICTATION BY NEW ENGLAND

Washington, April 6.—The outcry in the senate by Senator Stephen B. Elkins against the dictation by New England in the fashioning of the tariff bill is causing no end of talk at the capitol. How far the revolt that the West Virginian and his colleagues, Senator Scott, have started will go is one of the uncertainties of the situation that makes it hard to tell what the outcome of the efforts to revise the tariff will be.

Elkins ordinarily is one of the foremost supporters of the organization in the senate. But in this case he protests that that the tariff is being revised in the interest of New England and that the south, in which he includes West Virginia, is getting the worst of the deal. He holds that in its efforts to get free raw materials in order to help its manufactures, New England, with its three members on the finance committee, has gone too far. Senator Elkins is a high protectionist, and does not subscribe to the doctrine of free raw materials. He holds that coal, iron, lumber, hides and the like are entitled to their just share of protection. Like Cushman of Washington he does not want the tariff to be a "speckled egg."

Talk about the capitol is that Senator Aldrich will find a way to force Elkins to line up for whatever bill the finance committee brings out. Nevertheless, after a conference with Aldrich, Elkins, along with Senator Scott went over to the house and conferred with several representatives, including Langley of Kentucky, Hughes of West Virginia, Humphries of Washington, Mondell of Wyoming, Austin of Tennessee, Wheeler of Pennsylvania, and others. This is taken to mean that a movement has been started not only in the senate but in the house to affect a combination that will stand guard over the articles on which the West Virginia senators want protection, such as coal, lumber, iron ore, and the like. It is the purpose of this combination in case the New England influences prove obdurate, to try to force down the duties on shoes, cutlery and various New England manufactured articles. Senator Elkins is seeking to draw the southern senators into line for the movement which he started. He maintains that the failure of the south in the past to get its products properly protected has cost it several billions of dollars. While Senator Elkins is not expected long to remain at odds with such leaders as Aldrich and Hale, the fact that the spirit of revolt, against the tariff bill as it stands, in the house is strong in the senate. It is impossible to tell what the disaffected republican senators, with the aid of the democrats, may be able to accomplish. Mr. Elkins' outbreak is regarded as preliminary to

STOMACH AGONY

Abolish the Cause, and Misery and Distress of Indigestion Will Vanish.

Can indigestion be cured? Hundreds of thousands of people who suffer from belching of gas; biliousness, sour stomach, fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, bad taste in mouth, foul breath, nervousness and other distressing symptoms, are asking themselves that question daily.

And if these same doubting dyspeptics could only read the thousands of sincere letters from people who once suffered as badly as they do now, but who have been quickly and permanently cured by the use of M-I-O-na, the mighty dyspepsia remedy, that cures by removing the cause, they would go to E. G. Murphey's this very day and get a large box of M-I-O-na tablets, and start themselves on the right road to health at once.

The price of M-I-O-na tablets is only 50 cents, and E. G. Murphey guarantees them to cure indigestion, or money back.

Thin or lean or scrawny people will find in M-I-O-na a maker of flesh and blood, because it causes the stomach to extract more nutritious matter from the food, which quickly enriches the blood.

a considerable exodus of republican senators from the reservation.

The make-up of the finance committee has called no open protest except from West Virginia. But there is a great deal of muttering over it, and dissatisfaction with the way in which it fails to recognize some sections of the country. Senator Warren's friends wanted him to get on the finance committee. Senator Warren was anxious to get on. The Mississippi valley was left almost entirely unrepresented, except by Senator Cullom, of Illinois, who is now too old to stand the arduous duties of a member. This dissatisfaction and the fact that New England has succeeded in getting three on the committee will doubtless result in changing to a considerable degree the complexion of the tariff bill before it is finally passed.

UNCLE SAM ENCOURAGES GROWTH OF HIGH GRADE WILLOW RODS

Washington, March 6.—The government is right in the midst of the harvest of a most unique crop at its experimental farm near Arlington just across the Potomac from this city, where a corps of laborers in charge of trained foresters are preparing for the annual free distribution of 100,000 basket willow cuttings.

Uncle Sam is encouraging the growing of high grade willow rods in this country, and in five years since the establishment of the holt at Arlington approximately a half million select cuttings have been distributed among farmers, with directions for planting and preparing for market. Particular attention is given to selecting the varieties and strains best suited to the soil where the plantings will be made.

Willowcraft is an industry which is constantly growing in importance in this country, yet the culture of basket willow in the United States made very little progress until five or six years ago. Even now, practically all of the best grades of basket willow are imported from Europe, chiefly from France. European manufacturers compete keenly for the best products in their countries, and until recently only the inferior rods were sent to America where they have been bought at three times the prices quoted for similar stock a few years ago. Experiments have shown that the best grades of willow can be grown in this country at a good profit, and farmers are turning their attention to its culture more and more each year.

This year's harvest began early in March. Four approved varieties are being sent out, and only the best and most thrifty rods are selected for distribution. The management of the holt and work of free distribution of cuttings is charged to the United States forest service. Cuttings for experimental planting and information on management of the willow holt are furnished those who make the request of the forester at Washington.

The government recognizes the importance of good cuttings, a point more commonly overlooked than the matter of cultivation. Only the best and most thrifty rods are selected for each season's distribution. To produce a desirable grade of rods it is very important to select planting stock not only from thoroughly tested varieties, but the cuttings should be taken from the tallest, perfectly straight, cylindrical, branchless, and fully mature rods. High grade basket willows can be raised only by being sure that the cuttings planted are from the parent stock above the average.

The policy of the forest service is to increase the number of important basket willows and determine their value under different soil and climatic conditions, and as the final tests of the new varieties are completed, those proved to be valuable will be added to the distribution list. Cuttings of new and untried basket willows were obtained from Europe a year ago and planted in the service's experimental ground. Close observations will be made upon the growth of these and if the results are favorable during the first three years, cuttings from these varieties will be distributed in the United States. In case of some varieties a much longer time may elapse before their value can be ascertained.

The forest service is receiving a constantly increasing number of requests for basket willow cuttings. These requests come from all over the country, many of them coming through members of congress. The service is endeavoring to stimulate the basket willow industry in this country by distributing cuttings of the most approved varieties of willow and the four varieties tested for the last five years in the experimental holt at Arlington, Va., can now be confidently distributed. The behavior of the plants has been carefully observed as to the quantity and quality of the crop, to their resistance and lack of resistance to diseases as well as other points that would affect the profitability of each variety.

The observations made during the first two years were published in Circular 148 by the forest service. At the close of this spring's harvesting now going on, the results of the past three years' tests will be published.

MRS. P. D. ST. VRAIN HAS BEEN CRITICALLY ILL

Special correspondence.

Mora, N. M., April 3.—A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bach, April 2.

E. H. Blernbaum, A. Valdez, Patrio Sanchez, and Damacio Tafuya went to Las Vegas yesterday. While in the city they will take in the circus.

Mrs. P. D. St. Vrain has been very sick for the last two weeks. She is slowly recovering from an attack of the heart.

Mrs. Sebastian Esquibel died last Wednesday. The deceased was 22 years of age. She leaves her husband and two little children to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Nicolas Martinez is under the weather.

Establish Two New Routes.

Authentic statements confirm the late reports that star mail routes are to be established by the government between Roy and DeHaven, and Roy and Sanchez, thus making a total of four routes that receive mail from the local office.

The distance from Roy to Sanchez, San Miguel county, is approximately thirty miles, so the mail will be carried only three times weekly, while DeHaven is only twenty-two miles away, thus allowing a daily service to that place. Bids will be received by the government in a short time for the carriers on the new routes.

A communication received at Clayton from Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hammond states that they are enjoying the warm days and many delightful attractions of the city of San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Hammond's health is somewhat improved.

Mrs. John Logue, formerly principal of the school at Folsom, has gone to Oklahoma with her husband and son. She will take a short course of study in a normal school there.

F. A. Dudley, formerly of Raton, is building a fine 2-story residence on the ranch purchased by himself and brother, six miles above Aztec.

Deafness Cannot be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

R. T. Mansker and daughters have moved out to the Otto ranch, west of Clayton. Mr. Mansker will manage the ranch for Mr. Otto, he having resigned the office as deputy sheriff of Union county.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill. "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Boils, Burns and Piles astounded the world. 25c at all druggists.

Wallace Epperson returned to Aztec from his trip to Nebraska, and is located on his ranch above that town.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. O. G.
